[Αστυνόμευση]

The police of Ioannina is extremely good. The vigilance of Ali Pasha extends to every corner of the city; and patrols of Albanian soldiers pass the night in the streets to ensure tranquillity. It is a good regulation for such a capital, that no one is allowed to walk in the streets after dark, without a lamp or torch light. The Bazars are regularly closed at a certain hour of the evening, and I found by experience that it was dangerous to be in them after this hour.
